Who we are

Robertson Low are based in Kildare and are Ireland's first Incorporated Lloyd's broker. We have been providing our broker partners with access to Lloyd's and the London Market for over 20 years. Our focus is to provide access to professional and stable insurance providers for our brokers.

We provide them with access to markets that write a wide range of Irish and UK business from Construction and Liability risks to Professional Indemnity and Cyber insurance. Over the last 20 years, we have built strong insurer relationships and continue to work with these insurers to provide the best solutions for our brokers. Our London office facilitates relationships and a quick resolution.

We pride ourselves on our experienced professional team, who provide an excellent service to our broker partners. In 2019, Robertson Low was acquired by the Aston Lark Group, as part of a clearly defined growth and expansion strategy into the Irish market.

Further to this, on 21st April 2022, Aston Lark became part of Howden, the international insurance broking group, with the aim of creating a standout, full-spectrum broker with unrivalled reach and access.
